

Lecture Title:

How to Present Confidently in Online Meetings

Description: Video conferencing is here to stay, and is emerging as a key public speaking skill. In this workshop, you will learn practical techniques for getting your message across in online presentations. In addition to technical best practices, we'll also demonstrate effective ways for engaging your audience and retaining their attention.

About the speaker: Markus Seppälä is a speaker, event host and stand-up comedian who brings fun to the corporate stage, both in person and online. A two-time TEDx speaker and five-time Swiss champion of public speaking, Markus draws on his career in three life science companies as well as his insights from the comedy stage to engage diverse audiences with humor and enthusiasm. Markus is based in Basel, Switzerland where he runs Comedy Basel, the biggest comedy club in town.

Markus' YouTube channel with weekly public speaking tips:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCZjuT34iNarts1INHtcRCQ>

More info: <https://markuspresents.com>